

Directions: Write 2 or more sentences about the picture describing what is happening. Have your child sound out the words and try to write it on their own. You can assist them with more difficult words and write their sentence correctly underneath.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of solid top and bottom lines with a dashed midline. There are ten sets of these lines provided for writing.